A History Portfolio

A student created a portfolio about how travel and communication changed societies. She began with a research question rather than a list of famous people: How did networks connect communities, and whose experiences were left out of the usual accounts? She compared a map, a trade-route reading, and a translated historical account. Her notes separated quotations, paraphrases, and her own interpretations. When two accounts disagreed, she recorded their authors, purposes, and contexts instead of choosing the more dramatic version. The final presentation used a timeline but did not imply that every change happened everywhere at once. It included an argument supported by evidence and a section explaining limitations. The student concluded that a strong portfolio shows not only a polished product but also how the researcher checked and revised the work.

1. Using the supplied passage, write two organized paragraphs explaining its central message. Include two accurate details and explain how they support your response. (5 points)

2. Revise two sentences from your response. Explain one change that improves grammar, word choice, or clarity. (3 points)

Social Studies - 10 points

Score: _____ / 10

W2 background: Reason, rights, consent, limits on government, or debates about equality. Rights/equality claims often coexisted with exclusion and slavery. This is an assessment background note written for this packet, not an actual historical primary-source quotation.

1. What is one broad Enlightenment idea? (1 point)

2. Why compare ideals with actual practices? (1 point)

3. Use W2 background. Identify one claim that could be checked against a map, document, or other reliable source. (1 point)

4. Use W2 background. Explain how two ideas in the note connect. (2 points)

5. Name one kind of source that could help check the background note and explain why. (2 points)

6. Analyze an Enlightenment ideal and contradiction. (3 points)

Spanish - 7 points
