After the Storm

Original poem:
The street unrolls its silver thread,
The restless clouds move overhead.
A window holds the fading light;
A branch writes slowly into night.
I count the drops that leave the leaves,
And hear the roof repeat its eaves.
The storm has gone; its quiet trace
Still draws a map across this place.

Prose companion: Rainwater remains on leaves and the street after a storm. Clouds move away as evening approaches. A person observes these remaining signs of the weather. The prose summarizes observable conditions; the poem uses images to create a reflective mood.
