After the Storm

Original poem:
The street unrolls its silver thread,
The restless clouds move overhead.
A window holds the fading light;
A branch writes slowly into night.
I count the drops that leave the leaves,
And hear the roof repeat its eaves.
The storm has gone; its quiet trace
Still draws a map across this place.

Prose companion: Rainwater remains on leaves and the street after a storm. Clouds move away as evening approaches. A person observes these remaining signs of the weather. The prose summarizes observable conditions; the poem uses images to create a reflective mood.

1. Using the supplied passage, write two organized paragraphs explaining its central message. Include two accurate details and explain how they support your response. (5 points)

2. Revise two sentences from your response. Explain one change that improves grammar, word choice, or clarity. (3 points)
