Two Sources for a Forecast

Fictional classroom sources: Source A, "Weather Log," by a student team, dated March 8, records local temperature, wind direction, and pressure at noon for five days. Source B, an unsigned advertisement dated March 8, says that one device "always predicts weather perfectly" but gives no measurements. A research group prefers Source A for describing what was actually observed. It still checks the team's instruments and method, because named authors and a date do not guarantee accuracy. The group writes a cautious forecast, separating data from inference. Its notes include each source's title, creator, date, and the particular information used. In its final explanation, it paraphrases the data instead of copying a paragraph and identifies its source. Readers can judge the explanation more easily because the evidence and its limits are visible.

1. Using the supplied passage, write two organized paragraphs explaining its central message. Include two accurate details and explain how they support your response. (5 points)

Answer / scoring: 5-point rubric: accurate central message (1), two relevant text details (2), logical explanation/organization (1), clear sentences/conventions (1). Accept supported interpretations.

2. Revise two sentences from your response. Explain one change that improves grammar, word choice, or clarity. (3 points)

Answer / scoring: 3-point rubric: two effective revisions (2); accurate explanation of one improvement (1).

Social Studies - 10 points

Score: _____ / 10

W2 background: The Arabian Peninsula in the seventh century CE. Movement of people, texts, institutions, and contacts can carry ideas; mechanisms vary. This is an assessment background note written for this packet, not an actual historical primary-source quotation.

1. Where did Islam begin as a historical religious movement? (1 point)

Answer / scoring: The Arabian Peninsula in the seventh century CE.

2. How can trade and other networks help beliefs spread? (1 point)

Answer / scoring: Movement of people, texts, institutions, and contacts can carry ideas; mechanisms vary.

3. Use W2 background. Identify one claim that could be checked against a map, document, or other reliable source. (1 point)

Answer / scoring: The Arabian Peninsula in the seventh century CE. OR Movement of people, texts, institutions, and contacts can carry ideas; mechanisms vary.; accept a checkable claim accurately drawn from the note.

4. Use W2 background. Explain how two ideas in the note connect. (2 points)

Answer / scoring: Accept a logical relationship using accurate details from both statements; do not require one exact interpretation.

5. Name one kind of source that could help check the background note and explain why. (2 points)

Answer / scoring: A relevant map, scholarly/educator text, community source, historical document, or data record; source must match the claim. One point for suitable source and one for purpose.

6. Map a route of cultural/religious exchange. (3 points)

Answer / scoring: Rubric (3): accurate relevant content (1); supported comparison/relationship (1); clear organization and source/evidence awareness (1). Accurate broad regions, a plausible mechanism, and limits; distinguish exchange from universal acceptance.
